Originator City Manager	Item Planning Commission Interview Selection
Agenda Section Organizational	Date 6/27/2016
Description

The Bloomington Planning Commission holds hearings and makes recommendations to the City Council on land use, development plans, transportation issues, zoning and long-range development strategies. Ordinance Number 2009-39 adopted by Council on November 16, 2009 merged the Traffic and Transportation Advisory Commission with the Planning Commission. Members serve three-year terms.

At the January 27, 2014 Regular Council Meeting, Council passed an amendment to the ordinance for the Planning Commission to change the terms to expire on June 30th of the expiration year and allow those that were merged from TTAC to extend their terms by two years.
